

Answer Key

Chapter 13: The Roaring Life of the 1920s (pages 432–461)

Section 1: Changing Ways of Life (pages 434–439)

1. Possible response: Prohibition caused disrespect for the law. It also gave rise to organized crime.
2. Possible response: Fundamentalists' believed the Bible was literally true. This led to passage of the law against teaching evolution. Scopes broke the law.