

READING FOR SOCIAL STUDIES

Interpreting Visuals—Multiple Choice

Directions: This photograph, published in 1926, shows two women on the roof of a Chicago hotel. Use the information in the photograph and your knowledge of U.S. history to answer the questions.

copyright © Underwood &
Underwood / CORBIS

1. The women in the photograph are representative of
  - A suffragettes.
  - B flappers.
  - C farm women.
  - D None of the above
2. Which of the following details from the photograph indicates changes in women's lives that occurred in the 1920s?
  - F Short hair
  - G Short skirts
  - H Daring attitude
  - J All of the above
3. The women in the photograph appear to be
  - A falling.
  - B dancing the Charleston.
  - C working.
  - D sightseeing.
4. Which of the following statements BEST summarizes the message of the photograph?
  - F Women lived in fear of public opinion.
  - G Women weren't afraid to take chances.
  - H People in Chicago were proud of their architecture.
  - J Women were lost in big cities.

Test Your Knowledge: High School U.S. History Review

What caused women's roles to change between 1920 and 1930?
What were the effects of these changes on American society?